The Swedish American Patriotic League

SAN FRANCISCO EAST BAY CHAPTER

WISHES ONE AND ALL A HAPPY MIDSUMMER ON ITS 111th CONSECUTIVE MIDSUMMER FESTIVAL

The Swedish American Patriotic League, a congress of local organizations, is dedicated to promoting and perpetuating our common Swedish heritage. The League is grateful to all the officers and delegates of the League as well as to the officers and members of all constituent organizations for a century of selfless devotion and labor promoting the activities of Swedish Americans in the San Francisco Bay Area. We pledge to continue their work and legacy for the benefit of future generations.

The officers of the Swedish American Patriotic League would like to thank the many committee members and friends for their support and efforts for continuing this annual tradition.

DAG HAMMARSKJÖLD (1905-1961)

The Swedish American Patriotic League is proud to dedicate its 111th Midsummer Celebration to the 100th anniversary of the birth of Dag Hammarskjöld, Swedish civil servant, diplomat, Secretary-General of the United Nations (1953-1961), and Nobel Laureate for Peace (1961, posthumously). Dag Hammarskjöld emphasized that a major task of the UN is to assert the interest of small countries in relation to the major powers. He also shaped the UN's mandate to establish peace-keeping forces. For more information about Dag Hammarskjöld and his lasting legacy, please visit the website of the Dag Hammarskjöld Foundation at www.dhr.uu.se/default.html. QUEEN

Megan Page Jorgensen, is the 18 year old daughter of Fred and Toni Jorgensen of Orland, California, where their family raises beef cattle. Megan and her sisters Jessica and Erika all grew up helping around the ranch while attending Capay elementary School and later Corning High School. They were involved in 4-H, where Megan developed a wide range of interests in several projects, including raising steers for the fair. The family also attends Capay Friends Church, where Megan often watches the preschool children.

During high school, Megan was active in 4-H while playing three sports a year. Her favorites include track, basketball, and field hockey. She also was a member of the Interact Club, Leadership, and the California Scholarship Federation. After graduating from Corning High in June 2004, Megan attended Columbia Community College, and plans to continue her education at another community college this fall. In April of this year, she was selected as Dairy Princess for her area.

Growing up, Megan celebrated many Midsummers with her grandparents, Einar and Thelma Jorgensen, at their home in Santa Rosa. She also enjoyed being part of many Santa Lucia pageants with her sisters and cousins. In 2003 Megan was chosen by Linnéa Lodge #504 to represent "Lucia" for their annual celebration.

Megan is happy to be Queen at this year's Midsummer celebration. She is representing Linnéa Lodge #504, Petaluma and is looking forward to all the festivities.

SVEA

Viktoria Gunvor Crummey has been selected by Sveaborg Lodge, #449, VOA, Concord, to represent Svea. She was born on February 21, 1973, at Travis AFB, CA, where her father was stationed in the military. Her family includes parents Gunnel and Don and sisters Kristina and Gabrielle.

After Viktoria was born the family moved to Vänersborg, Sweden while her father had an unaccompanied tour in Korea. The family lived in Sweden for two years and then joined their father at Ramstein Air Base in Germany. The entire family then returned to California in 1979. Due to the close relationship with her cousins in Sweden, Viktoria often spent the summers in Timmervik, Dalsland playing along the shores of Lake Vänern. Viktoria graduated from high school in 1991 and went on to Humboldt State University. While attending HSU Viktoria went to Uppsala University in Sweden as an exchange student. She graduated from HSU in 1996, and then received a Teaching Certificate from Sierra Nevada College. Viktoria then returned to Uppsala University in 1999 for a Master's Degree Program in International Studies. Currently Viktoria lives at Lake Tahoe and works as an adjunct professor of Economics at Sierra Nevada College.

Viktoria enjoys the great outdoors, both skiing, kayaking, swimming and camping. She also loves to travel. Viktoria is honored to represent Svea as an extension of her love of Sweden and its culture.

COLUMBIA

Lindsey Alexandra Stiles represents the Swedish Club of San Francisco. She is the 20 year old daughter of Lisa and David Stiles of San Mateo, and the granddaughter of Alice Duff and the late Alexander Duff, Jr. Alice Duff has been an active member of The Swedish Club, Lindbergh Lodge #449 VOA, Palo Alto for over 40 years. Lindsey graduated from Aragon High School in 2003 and is now in her third year at Chico State University and is majoring in Business and Accounting.

This is a special honor for Lindsey. Her mother was Columbia in 1978 and her grandmother was Columbia in 1939. Lindsey has a lot of fond memories of summers at Sveadal, hiking, swimming and the never ending crayfishing, which will never be forgotten. She has participated in many Lucia festivals as a child and was active in the Children's Club with Britt O'Grady.

NORDAHL GRIEG SPELEMANNSLAG

THE SPELEMANNSLAG

During our tour to Norway in 1992, our interactions with the Naustdal Spelemannslag inspired us to organize our own musicians group. The word "spelemannslag" is a Norwegian word that translates: spele = to play an instrument, especially fiddle; manns = people, lag = group; therefore spelemannslag means a group of people that play fiddles and other instruments. Besides fele (ordinaryl flat fiddle), the group has trekkspel (accordion), torader (Norwegian concertina), guitar, bass, tussefloeyte (recorder), flute, hardingfele (Hardanger fiddle), piano, munnharpe (mouth harp), and vocals. The primary focus of the group is to perform traditional gammaldans music for a listening audience or a dance. They also provide music for Leikarring performances.

ABOUT THE SONGS AND DANCES

Because Norway is isolated from the rest of Europe by the seas, and each valley within Norway is isolated by the numerous mountains, glaciers and fjords that cover the majority of the country, a unique and rich tradition of folk song and dance dialects has developed and been maintained. There are four main categories of Norwegian dance. Bygdanser (village dances) are the oldest living tradition dating from at least the 1600s, and every valley has their own unique rhythm and style. Songdanser (song dances), are a tradition from Viking times revived in Norway in the early 1900s. Turdansar (figure or set dances), are a tradition of pattern dances mainly from France and Great Britain in the 1700s and 1800s. Runddansar or Gammeldanser (old time couple dances), are a tradition from the 1800s when the ballroom dances of Europe such as the waltz, polka and schottisch spread throughout Norway. When we perform, we try to include some dances from each of the four groups, and to sample several of the special musical and dance dialects of Norway.

COSTUMES AND JEWELRY

Just as the music and dances of Norway are unique to each geographic area, there are hundreds of distinct costumes - each with its own jewelry - in three categories: Reproductions of surviving costumes, reconstructions based on writings or drawings, or contemporary (and often copyrighted) designs. Bunader are the costumes that research has provided proven roots of local tradition. These costumes have usually been formally approved by a national Norwegian committee. Folkedrakter or "folk costumes" come from the living tradition and can be 1) imaginative recollections of the styles and traditions of many years past or 2) actual daily wear designs that have survived through centuries. In the later cases, the fabrics and styles used today are exactly the same as those used in the 1600s. The soelje (silver jewelry) is different for each costume and some of the designs can be traced to the Viking times and the Middle Ages.

Congratulations to our Svea

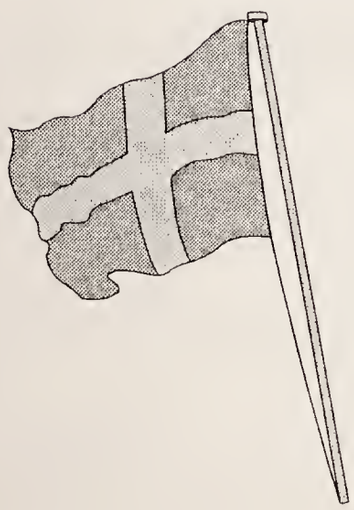
GLAD MIDSOMMAR

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh say, can you see
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so galantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
Oh say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?



DU GAMLA, DU FRIA, DU FJÄLLHÖGA NORD

Du gamla, du fria, du fjällhöga Nord,
du tysta, du glädjerika sköna!
Jag hälsar dig vänaste land uppå jord
din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!
Din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!

Du tronar på minnen från fornstora dar,
då ärat ditt namn flög över jorden.
Jag vet, att du är och du blir, vad du var.
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden,
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden.

Translation
O glorious mountain crown'd land of the North,
thou quiet thou joyous land, I love thee,
I hail thee as fairest of lands on this earth;
Thy meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee,
The meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee.

Thy throne is the mem'ry of great days of yore,
when all through the world thy name was carried,
thou art this, I know, the same as of old.
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land,
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land.

Glad Midsommar önskar vi er alla!

Den blomstertid nu kommer (sjung med oss) ...

Den blomstertid nu kommer med lust och fägring stor.
Du nalkas ljuva sommar då gräs och gröda gror.
Med blid och livlig värma till allt som varit dött.
Sig solens strålar närma och allt blir återfött

De fagra blomsterängar och åkerns ädla säd.
De rika örtes-ängar och lundens gröna träd.
De skola oss påminna Guds godhets rikedom.
Att vi den nåd besinna som räcker året om
